

Pursuant to Section 284.123(b)(2)(ii), if the Commission does not act within 150 days of the filing date, the rate will be deemed to be fair and equitable and not in excess of an amount which interstate pipelines would be permitted to charge for similar transportation service. The Commission may, prior to the expiration of the 150-day period, extend the time for action or institute a proceeding to afford parties an opportunity for written comments and for the oral presentation of views, data, and arguments.

Any person desiring to participate in this rate proceeding must file a motion to intervene in accordance with Sections 385.211 and 385.214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedures. All motions must be filed with the Secretary of the Commission on or before November 20, 1995. The petition for rate approval is on file with the Commission and is available for public inspection.

Kern River Gas Transmission Company; Notice of Refund Report

October 26, 1995.

Take notice that on October 17, 1995, Kern River Gas Transmission Company (Kern River) tendered for filing a refund report pursuant to the Commission's May 3, 1995, "Order Granting Clarification" issued in Docket No. RP95-124-001.

Kern River states that it has refunded the Gas Research Institute (GRI) demand surcharge refund received from GRI based on the non-discounted GRI dollars paid by each firm shipper during the 1994 calendar year as a percentage of the total non-discounted GRI demand dollars paid by all firm shippers. Kern River further states that it made these refunds in the form of credits to invoices issued on October 6, 1995. The total amount credited was $646,159.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). All such motions or protests should be filed on or before November 2, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

[Docket No. GT96-17-000]

Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

October 26, 1995

Take notice that on October 23, 1995, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco) tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 2, First Revised Sheet No. 3191. The proposed effective date of such tariff sheet is December 1, 1995.

Transco states that the purpose of the instant filing is to terminate Section 7(c) firm transportation service under Rate Schedule X-285 and to convert such service to service provided under Rate Schedule FT pursuant to Transco's blanket transportation certificate and Part 284 of the Commission's regulations effective December 1, 1995. In that regard, Transco and its APEC shippers have agreed that, as part of the conversion process, converting APEC shippers will be entitled to elect annual firm transportation service in lieu of seasonal (November 15 through March 31) service. Brooklyn Union Gas Company (BUG) has notified Transco of its election to convert its APEC service to annual firm transportation service.

The rates applicable to the converted service are the generally applicable charges under Rate Schedule FT (including fuel), plus reservation and commodity rate surcharges as set forth on Original Sheet No. 40E to Transco's Third Revised Volume No. 1 Tariff which is currently pending before the Commission in Docket No. GT95-64-000. Original Sheet No. 40E sets forth the charges applicable to APEC firm transportation service which has been converted from individually certificated Section 7(c) firm transportation service to annual firm transportation service under Transco's blanket certificate and Part 284 of the Commission's regulations.

Transco states that copies of the filing are being mailed to BUG and interested State Commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E. Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before November 2, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

October 26, 1995.

Take notice that on October 23, 1995, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco) tendered for filing certain revised tariff sheets to its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1 and Original Volume No. 2, which tariff sheets are included in Appendix A attached to the filing. The proposed effective date of such tariff sheets is December 1, 1995.

Transco states that the purpose of the instant filing is to terminate Section 7(c) firm transportation service under Rate Schedules X-295 and X-298 and to convert such service to service provided under Rate Schedule FT pursuant to Transco's blanket transportation certificate and Part 284 of the Commission's regulations effective December 1, 1995. Currently, the System Expansion (SEP) service is billed on an annual basis. However, upon conversion to Part 284 service, Transco, City of Fountain Inn, South Carolina and City of Kings Mountain, North Carolina have agreed that the converted SEP service will be billed on a seasonal basis corresponding to the period during which Transco provides SEP service (i.e. November through March).

The charges applicable to SEP firm transportation service which has been converted from individually certificated Section 7(c) firm transportation service to annual firm transportation service under Transco's blanket certificate and Part 284 of the Commission's regulations are set forth on Original Sheet No. 40F which is currently pending before the Commission in Docket No. GT95-63-000.

Transco states that copies of the filing are being mailed to the converting SEP shippers and interested State Commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before November 2, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation; Notice of Refund Report

October 26, 1995.

Take notice that on October 17, 1995, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco) tendered for filing a refund report pursuant to the Commission's February 22, 1995, "Order Approving Refund Methodology for 1994 Overcollections" issued in Docket No. RP95-124-000.

Transco states that on October 13, 1995, it flowed through amounts refunded to Transco by Gas Research Institute (GRI) in accordance with the Commission's February 22, 1995 order. Transco further states that in accordance with ordering paragraph (c) in the February 22, Order, Transco has calculated the refund due each firm shipper based on the non-discounted GRI demand dollars paid by each firm shipper during the 1994 calendar year as a percentage of the total non-discounted GRI demand dollars paid by all firm shippers. Transco states that the total amount of the 1994 GRI refund was $2,604,535.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).
